

We already have recycling bins - Recycle to preserve

The students and teachers of the Erasmus and Eco Schools project made recycling bins out of empty water bottles that were brought by the school community all over the year to be replaced when they got ruined. They were placed in all the classrooms. Every week, the students' representative of each class put the separated waste into bigger containers to be collected by the municipality. This process will remain in the school for the years to come

